Primary Actor: Website user

Website user wants to add a new artist to the database.

Use case is the following:

- Customer goes to website

- Customer clicks on the "Add" section in the top header".

- Customer chooses "Add artist" from the options on the page.

- Customer fills out the required information in the form.

- Form is sent to the database and relevant information is added for each of the given information in the form.

- Database is updated and will include the new item for all other web users.